JOSE MOURINHO

Good evening and welcome back. I was happy with the performance that saw us progress to the FA Cup fourth round last time we were here with our victory against Middlesbrough. We played well from the first minute; we pressed high, moved the ball fast and we were solid in defence. We could have finished the game in the first half through our relentlessness in attack and ultimately I felt we fully deserved to win the game.

That result sees us travel to Southampton on Saturday, which will undoubtedly be another tough away game. If you want to win a special competition such as the FA Cup you need to come through difficult ties, so we have to go there with everything we have.

"YOUR SUPPORT IS ALWAYS INCREDIBLE AND IT CAN BE FELT BY ALL OF US ON THE PITCH – IT MAKES A HUGE DIFFERENCE"

Our attacking intent from the start of Saturday's game against Watford showed the draw was not the result we wanted. However, there were positives to be taken from what I considered a good performance. It is difficult to dominate Watford due to their physical strength, yet we enjoyed plenty of the ball, we created chances and we kept a clean sheet.

The players will undoubtedly take that determination into tonight's game as we welcome Norwich City. They showed us their qualities back in December at Carrow Road and the fact we conceded goals that were avoidable makes us eager to put that disappointing result right and get the three points we all desire this evening.

I would like to welcome our new signing Gedson to the Club. He is young, he can play in different positions in midfield and he has experience of playing in big matches for Benfica, so I am looking forward to working with him.

Your support is always incredible and it can be felt by us all on the pitch – it makes a huge difference and has a big impact on the players.

I hope you enjoy your evening with us.

WOMEN FALL TO SECOND HALF GOALS

Spurs Women failed to score on the road for the first time since the opening day of the season as Manchester United emerged from the fog with all three points at Leigh Sports Village on Sunday.

Three second-half goals gave our former Championship promotion rivals a 3-0 victory against us for the second time this campaign in the Barclays FA Women's Super League, but it could have been a different story had home goalkeeper Mary Earps not saved brilliantly from Rianna Dean shortly after half-time with the score at 0-0.

Emma Mitchell and Dean both hit the woodwork in the space of three minutes after Katie Zelem's penalty and Jess Sigsworth's close-range effort had given the Reds Devils a two-goal lead, but Zelem finished off the scoring with a late free-kick. United finished with 10 players after the stoppage-time dismissal of Ella Toone. Meanwhile, Megan Wynne has joined Barclays FA Women's Super League side Bristol City on loan until the end of the season. The Welsh international was part of last season's promotion-winning squad and has made seven appearances for us in all competitions this season.

And finally, our Barclays FA Women's Super League match away to Arsenal on Sunday 9 February will be broadcast live on BBC Red Button. Kick-off at Meadow Park, Boreham Wood, remains at 2pm.

CLARKE JOINS HOOPS ON LOAN

Jack Clarke has joined Queens Park Rangers on loan until the end of the season.

Born in York, the winger came through the ranks at Leeds United and signed for us last summer, before spending the first half of the current season back at Elland Road on loan.

He made 28 senior appearances for Leeds during his time at the Championship club and ironically, made his debut for QPR on Saturday against his former side, coming off the bench in Rangers' 1-0 win at Loftus Road.

PAULO ON PENALTY STOP

Typically modest, Paulo Gazzaniga played down his role in taking a hard-earned point at Watford on Saturday.

The home side were awarded a penalty during their best spell in the second half at Vicarage Road. Troy Deeney stepped up and struck the spot-kick well but Paulo guessed correctly to dive to his right and palm the ball away.

We had the best of the rest of the game and might have won it in added time only for Ignacio Pussetto to clear Erik Lamela's effort off the line - we were 10.4 millimetres away from taking the three points

Paulo's save was more clear cut, a decisive effort to his right. "I'd watched some videos, tried to read him as well, maybe a little luck too," he said. "I try to do my best and the luck was with me this time.

"It was a tough game, they're a tough team to play. We looked for three points, but we've got one and that's maybe why we're a little disappointed.

"We defended well, kept the clean sheet. We worked hard. The clean sheet is reward for everyone. Now we look forward, prepare for the next game and do the same - work hard."

DON'T LOOK BACK, TANG

Exclusive interview with young defender Japhet Tanganga, who has been through ups and downs in his formative years – but wasn't afraid to get his hands dirty on his way to becoming a Premier League player.

Japhet Tanganga played the waiting game while learning the beautiful game in our Academy – and has quite literally built his fledgling career from the ground up.

With us since the age of 10, the athletic young defender made his debut for our Under-18s as a 15-year-old in 2014 – co-incidentally against this evening's opponents, Norwich City – and gradually progressed up into the Under-23s, where he'd been a staple for some two-and-a-half years before seizing his first team chance this season.

Some might say it's been a long time coming. Aside from a fleeting appearance in a low-key pre-season friendly in Girona the summer before last, the Hackney-born youngster had a comparatively late introduction to first team football.

While others moved on, Japhet crucially kept his head down, kept grafting in the Development Squad and when an opportunity finally opened up for him on our summer tour to Asia – with senior defenders Davinson Sanchez, Eric Dier, Serge Aurier, Ben Davies and Danny Rose all absent from the trip – he grasped it with both hands. Outstanding in showcase matches against Juventus, Manchester United, Real Madrid, Bayern Munich and Inter, his competitive debut followed at Colchester United in the Carabao Cup in September.

> “THIS SEASON HAS JUST SHOWN ME THAT ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN AND WHEN YOU DO GET YOUR OPPORTUNITY YOU NEED TO BE READY AND YOU NEED TO BE ABLE TO PERFORM”

And after a number of appearances on the first team bench in the months that followed, he was thrust into the side for his Premier League bow against table-topping Liverpool earlier this month, following that up with a Man of the Match display in our FA Cup replay win against Middlesbrough here last week where he touched the ball more times than any other player on the pitch. He could even have scored as well!

“Honestly, I think the biggest problem for young players is just being impatient,” said the 20-year-old. “You see other people that are younger than you playing first team football, their time has come a bit sooner than you and you're almost looking at it thinking 'what do I have to do to get that opportunity?' You almost feel like you're getting old. But it's all about timing.

"This season has just shown me that anything can happen and when you do get your opportunity you need to be ready and you need to be able to perform so that you do manage to stake your claim. If I wasn't doing all the things off the pitch that I should be doing, then when I did get my opportunity I might have missed it because I might not have performed the way I should have. That's due to the work I was doing on the pitch with Wayne (Burnett, Under-23s Coach) and the extras I was doing in the gym. Literally all I can say is that it's about timing, just being patient, waiting and working behind closed doors where no-one can see.

"Then when your time comes, you're ready because of what you've been doing in training. Thankfully I was able to get that opportunity and I was able to take it. I'm a religious person, too, and I feel like without God I wouldn't be where I am today. From now on, it's just important to keep working, to not stop doing the things that I was doing to get that opportunity, to keep on working even harder and harder to try to continue to be selectable in future."

By his own admission, Japhet wasn't always the most mature lad during his teenage years and at one stage in the Under-18s, he, along with our coaches and his father, decided to arrange a spell of work experience with our team of ground staff with a clear purpose in mind – to help him understand the "real world" challenges we all face. It was the making of him.

"Honestly, looking back at it now, I would say that was the turning point," said Japhet. "That was when the penny dropped, just seeing how passionate the ground staff were in their job. You're coming in early, it's cold, you're working outside – but the passion they have for how they work, maintaining the pitches, placing the flowers around the edge of the training ground, how precise they are and how they pay attention to detail – it's amazing and it made me realise that I do love football and whether things are or aren't going my way, this is my passion and I've just got to take it seriously. I've been given a gift to be able to play football so I shouldn't misuse it.

"We spoke with Darren (Baldwin), the head of our ground staff, and he was able to find work for me. I worked with Tim (Judd, head gardener) and a lot of their team for a month and it was probably the hardest month of my Under-18s year but, honestly, it made me learn a lot and I'm so grateful to all the ground staff. My dad was involved with it as well – he felt that I needed to work, to be in an adult environment to understand the position that I'm in.

"I still speak to the ground staff now. When I see them, they're happy to see me playing in the stadium and it's just great because they're all top, top people. They make the training ground and stadium the way they are and when so many people compliment us about Tottenham's facilities, it's due to the ground staff and how great they make everything for us. They are just amazing and they – along with my coaches, of course – helped to shape me into who I am today. I'm not the finished article, I'm still growing, but it all started from there to be honest."

After his Premier League debut against Liverpool on 11 January, Japhet told the story of how Jose Mourinho had approached him a few days earlier and asked his feelings over whether he should play. The outcome shows how far the defender has come as a person – he recalls a similar conversation with John McDermott, our Head of Academy Coaching and Player Development, ahead of his debut for the Under-18s just over five years ago, which didn't go quite as well…

"I remember going up to Norwich on the coach and John asked me 'do you want to start?' Obviously then I was coming into a new age group, I was 15 and I wasn't sure, so I said 'I don't mind' – I got a bit of stick for that from John about the way I responded! It turned out that he had plans to play me anyway and it was really good.

"I then played in an FA Youth Cup match against Wolves, we won, it was another good game and from there, I travelled with the lads a little bit for some of the next games. Unfortunately I tore my meniscus against Leicester and that was my season done but in that short period, the games were good and it was a nice jump up for me from playing in the Under-16s to appearing in the Under-18s at 15 years of age."

Japhet remembers that first outing for the Under-18s at Norwich's Colney training ground with clarity. His young team-mate Joe Pritchard broke his leg that day but thankfully he made a full recovery and is currently enjoying a good season in League One with Accrington Stanley. "Todd Cantwell played that game for Norwich as well," added Japhet. "I think he was the number 10. I played with Ben Godfrey with England Under-20s last season in one of the camps too – he's a good lad."

As he prepares to renew acquaintances with the Canaries at senior level this evening, judging by what we've seen so far from this talented young man, we can safely say the same about him.

As part of an occasional feature, Andy Greeves takes at a look back at a match in which a substitute has made a real impact for us. Today he remembers the late Ralph Coates' League Cup Final-winning strike against Norwich City in 1973

Having beaten Aston Villa 2-0 in our inaugural Football League Cup Final in 1971, we returned to Wembley Stadium just over two years later to take part in the showpiece occasion once again. We dispatched Swansea City, Sheffield United, West Bromwich Albion, Coventry City and Bristol City to reach the final against fellow First Division side Norwich City on 3 March 1973.

The first chance of note in an intriguing opening 45 minutes fell to Martin Peters, who headed just wide of Norwich's goal from a Cyril Knowles cross. Peters, who sadly passed away on 21 December last year, scored 76 goals for us in 260 appearances between 1970 and 1975 and went on to play for the Canaries from 1975 to 1980, where he featured in 232 matches and scored 50 goals.

Moments later, John Pratt slid in to knock the ball out of play as Norwich's Graham Paddon looked to advance in the direction of our penalty area. In doing so, he sustained a knee injury and eventually had to be replaced by Ralph Coates after 25 minutes of the match. The substitute made an instant impression, as he set off on a purposeful charge down the Canaries' left, forcing Geoff Butler to make two separate challenges to prevent him getting in a cross.

Towards the end of the half, Pat Jennings made a brave save at the feet of Paddon while Butler made an excellent last-ditch challenge on Martin Chivers as he broke into the Norwich penalty area.

Early in the second period, Jimmy Pearce put the ball just wide of Kevin Keelan's post with an acrobatic scissor-kick from a Chivers cross. The same player struck the post later in the game, turning a Chivers flick-on from a Peters cross onto the woodwork. The deadlock was finally broken on 72 minutes as Coates' energetic display on the day was rewarded with the former Burnley man getting the only goal of the game.

"We got a throw and Martin Chivers took one of his long ones," Coates told us in an interview, describing his match-winner against Norwich. "Alan Gilzean flicked it on and as I was running on the edge of the box, I thought 'blimey, keep it down'. I did and it went into Kevin Keelan's bottom corner.

"It was a terrific moment and my fan mail trebled. Afterwards you realised how much it meant to people and even now when people see it, they clap and cheer."

Duncan Forbes headed wide with Norwich's last chance of the afternoon seconds before referee David White sounded the full-time whistle, confirming Bill Nicholson's fifth consecutive Wembley cup final success, having previously won the FA Cup there in 1961, 1962 and 1967 and the League Cup in 1971.

Born in Hetton-Le-Hole near Sunderland on 26 April 1946, Coates began his career at Burnley, for whom he originally joined as an apprentice in 1961 before making his first-team debut against Sheffield United at Turf Moor on 19 December 1964. He netted 32 times in 261 appearances for the Clarets prior to joining us for a fee of £190,000 in May 1971.

Coates made his competitive debut for us in a 2-2 draw at Wolverhampton Wanderers on the opening weekend of the 1971/72 season and featured in nine matches in the UEFA Cup that campaign - including both legs of the final against Wolves – as we won the competition in its inaugural year. He also started both matches against Feyenoord in the 1974 UEFA Cup Final during a Spurs career that saw him score 23 goals in 248 games.

Coates' final appearance for us came as a substitute for Martin Robinson in a 5-1 Second Division victory over Oldham Athletic at White Hart Lane on 8 October 1977.

He departed N17 for Australia, signing for Sydney-based club St George in 1978, for whom he netted three times in 11 National Soccer League matches. He returned to the UK later that year to join Leyton Orient, who he scored 12 goals in 84 appearances between 1978 and 1981.

In retirement, Coates – who won four caps for England between 1970 and 1971 – worked as a corporate host at White Hart Lane before passing away on 17 December, 2010 at the age of 64.

SCENE SETTER

Previewing this evening's Premier League meeting with Norwich City, looking at the form guide, previous encounters and a whole host of vital statistics…

DID YOU KNOW?

Our 0-0 stalemate with Watford on Saturday ended our run of 93 games without a goalless draw in the Premier League – the second longest run in the competition's history.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

v Norwich

Tonight sees the two teams face off for the 18th time in the Premier League and we've lost just three of the previous 17. Let's take a look back at five past successes…

2011

Gareth Bale struck twice, the second a fine individual goal as he raced from halfway before beating Jon Ruddy, in our 2-0 away win in December, 2011.

2013

Another double to win the day, this time from Gylfi Sigurdsson who scored once in each half to give us a 2-0 victory at the Lane.

2015

Our most recent clash with the Canaries in N17 before tonight ended in a Boxing Day victory thanks to goals from Harry Kane [2] and Tom Carroll.

1993

A 5-1 win over the Canaries, our biggest during the inaugural Premier League campaign, thanks to goals from Sheringham [2], Ruddock, Barmby and Nayim.

2004

More Boxing Day delight, this time at Carrow Road as two goals in four second half minutes from Robbie Keane and Michael Brown gave us all three points.

WINNING WEDNESDAYS

We have won our last nine Premier League home games played on a Wednesday, since a 0-1 loss against Leicester in January 2016.

NORWICH NIGHTMARES

Away from home, Norwich haven't won any of their last 15 evening kick-offs (7pm or later) in the Premier League, drawing five and losing 10, since winning 2-1 at Ipswich in September 1994.

HOME COMFORTS

We have won our last two Premier League home games against Norwich, 2-0 in September 2013 and 3-0 in December 2015.

HEAD TO HEAD

TEAM FORM

Spurs:	Norwich:

We have endured a tough start to the new year so far. Without a win in the league since Boxing Day's 2-1 triumph over Brighton, we suffered a 1-0 defeat to Southampton on New Year's Day and then fell to the same scoreline against Liverpool before Saturday's 0-0 draw against Watford brought us our first Premier League point of 2020.

Norwich come into this evening's game with a winning feeling after they picked up their first three points since November with a 1-0 triumph over Bournemouth on Saturday. However, despite that positive result, the Canaries remain rooted to the bottom of the table, six points from safety.

Born in Mar del Plata, Argentina, Emiliano Buendia came to Europe as a youngster and briefly spent time with Real Madrid. He remained in Spain to move to Getafe, where he made great strides through the club's youth system, eventually making his La Liga debut in February 2015. The young midfielder then spent a season on loan at second-tier side Cultural y Deportiva Leonesa, before moving to Carrow Road in the summer of 2018. He played a crucial role in the Canaries' promotion to the top flight, scoring eight times and recording a staggering 19 assists, with fans also voting him into third place in the Player of the Season awards. Buendia's knack for creating chances for his team-mates has showed no sign of disappearing at the top level of the English game – he currently has seven assists to his name in the league this season.

Stylish midfield man Cantwell is a product of the Canaries' Academy system, but has navigated an unusual route to the English top flight – he went on loan to Dutch club Fortuna Sittard and helped them win promotion to the Eredivisie. He then repeated the trick with Norwich last season, and has hit six goals from midfield so far this term.

Eddie Clayton

STEADY EDDIE

EDDIE CLAYTON HELPED PROVIDE A STEADY FOUNDATION TO ALL THAT WE ACHIEVED THROUGHOUT THE 1960S. JOHN FENNELLY LOOKS BACK ON THE CAREER OF A PLAYER WHO MADE A CRUCIAL INDIVIDUAL CONTRIBUTION TO THOSE GLORY YEARS

Eddie Clayton caused a bit of a sensation in April 1958 when he scored twice on his Spurs debut against Everton at Goodison Park.

It was a 4-3 win that kept us in contention in a Division One title race that would see us eventually finish third in the final table and introduced a player who would go on to give us excellent service throughout the next decade.

The inside-forward also scored in our next game when we won 2-0 at West Brom and progressed to score goals at the likes of Highbury, Hillsborough, Turf Moor and White Hart Lane as he continually illustrated his value to the squad.

He finished with 20 goals in 92 top flight league appearances and also played on 10 occasions in the domestic cups for us plus once in Europe.

That Euro outing came on our inaugural 1961 European Cup adventure when we won 3-1 at Feyenoord in the second round, watched by almost 62,000 fans in Rotterdam. And he stood by as back up for many more continental games after that.

Eddie was born in Bethnal Green in May 1937 and did well in local schools' football, joining us as an amateur in March 1955 before being upgraded to full professional status in November 1957.

Jimmy Anderson was the manager at the time and Clayton continued to progress when Bill Nicholson took over midway through the following season.

Eddie was a skilled, clever, positive player, always aware in possession and off the ball, a creator as much as a goalscorer and the possessor of powerful shooting skills. And all this in what was a high-quality side as we headed for the Double and those glory years.

That in itself was Clayton's dichotomy. That squad strength understandably restricted opportunities but he was never found wanting when called upon and Eddie can look back proudly on the many times when he mirrored the performances of some of the best players in the country under an extremely capable and demanding manager who certainly did not carry passengers!

Eddie was in there on merit and his best season at the Lane was certainly 1965-66 when he was almost an ever-present with nine goals in 38 appearances, mainly in our famous number eight shirt, in Division One. He also played against Middlesbrough that term in the third round of the FA Cup when he helped us to a 4-0 home win.

He left us for Southend United in March 1968 before representing Ashford Town and Margate. He played against us in the third round of the FA Cup in 1973 for The Gate when we won 6-0 in front of 14,500 fans at Hartsdown Park. Clayton was the Kent club's player-manager. He continued to work in non-league and was subsequently on the coaching staff of tonight's visitors Norwich City.

We are delighted to welcome Eddie to our new home for this evening's game.

Nile John on the front foot against Swansea

Romaine Mundle looks to stop a Swansea break

UNDER-18 PREMIER LEAGUE: SPURS 3-0 SWANSEA CITY

Our Under-18s made it four league wins in a row with a 3-0 triumph over Swansea City at Hotspur Way on Saturday morning.

Kion Etete got us underway as he poked home J'Neil Bennett's cross on 20 minutes before a fine team move was finished off by Nile John just beyond the half-hour mark as the midfielder marked his return from injury with a goal. The scoring was later wrapped up on 89 minutes with a sublime curling effort from Bennett who spun the ball home from just outside the box.

Goalkeeper Kacper Kurylowicz and defender Marqes Muir had denied Swans striker Josh Thomas twice with vital interventions in the opening stages, paving the way for our victory.

Spurs: Kurylowicz, Cesay, Hackett (Santiago 83), Muir (c), Lusala, Skinner, John (Cassanova 63), Pedder (Mundle 69), Robson, Etete, Bennett. Substitutes (not used): Lo-Tutala, Mathurin.

BENNETT'S BELTER BEATS BRIGHTON

A fine goal from J'Neil Bennett saw our Under-18s brush off the disappointment of their FA Youth Cup exit three days earlier with a well-earned 1-0 win at Brighton & Hove Albion on 11 January.

The winger was one of five players to keep their places in the starting line-up from the cup loss at Wigan and he repaid coach Matt Taylor with a superb effort from the edge of the box 17 minutes from time.

Our defence, which included Under-16s players Dante Cassanova and Jordan Hackett in the full-back roles – Cassanova making his first-ever appearance at this level and Hackett marking his league debut – also played their part in our first domestic clean sheet since September. There was a further boost in the second half with the return of midfielder Matthew Craig, who had been out injured for three-and-a-half months.

Spurs: Kurylowicz, Cassanova (Santiago 76), Hackett, Cirkin (c), Muir, Lusala, Mundle (Mathurin 64), Skinner, Etete, Pedder (Matthew Craig 64), Bennett. Substitutes (not used): Lo-Tutala, Lusala.

TAKING CUES FROM SNOOKER STARS

A group of our Under-23 and Under-18 players enjoyed a unique chance to experience the world of snooker with a special visit to the Masters tournament at Alexandra Palace last Wednesday.

Less than 10 miles from our Training Centre, Jamie Bowden, Maurizio Pochettino, Enock Asante, Chay Cooper, Michael Craig and Eddie Carrington were given a tour of the arena at the iconic north London venue, including an up-close glimpse at the main match table and a trip backstage to the players' room, where they quizzed current pro Martin O'Donnell on the mental strength and preparation levels needed by elite professionals on the World Snooker Tour.

Under the guidance of Martin, the group tested their own potting skills and ability to control the cue ball at one of the backstage tables before being invited into the practice room to observe world number 13 Jack Lisowski preparing for his first round Masters clash with eighth-ranked Kyren Wilson in the afternoon session.

The players then took their seats to watch Lisowski and Wilson compete live for a place in the quarter-finals. Lisowski raced into an early two-frame lead but Wilson came roaring back to win 6-2.

Midfielder Jamie said: "It's been a different experience and very enjoyable. It's brilliant to be honest because we've had chances to talk to players who have been there and gone through what it takes to make it in their sport and we got some great advice on how we can transform that into what we do every day in football. It was good to try playing a few shots ourselves too – I back myself at the snooker table and it was enjoyable to see what the others lads have got with a cue as well!"

Martin said: "I think it's important for the players to see another top sport and how other top sports people go about their business. Hopefully they could see another example today of how much hard work goes into being a sportsman – snooker is a solitary game and it's about being very self-motivated. Professional sport is never easy – sometimes there might even be more downs than there are ups, so you've got to have the mental strength to get through. Hopefully the players can see that if you remain positive, you have a chance of getting the rewards at the end of it. I hope they've been able to take something out of this session that can help them in the future."

The visit was one of several off-field activities enjoyed by our young players over the course of each season as part of our extensive education programme.

The Masters, featuring the top 16 players in the world, is the second longest-running snooker competition behind the World Championship and is one of the sport's prestigious Triple Crown events. The tournament returns to Alexandra Palace in 2021 – visit wst.tv for details.

Elliot Thorpe celebrates after opening the scoring against Derby

PREMIER LEAGUE 2: DERBY COUNTY 2-2 SPURS

Elliot Thorpe scored his first goal in the Premier League 2 as our Under-23s were hauled back by Derby County in a classic 'game of two halves' that ended 2-2 at Loughborough University last Monday evening (13 January).

Thorpe provided a crisp finish from Dilan Markanday's low cross to open the scoring in the 10th minute as we flew out of the traps against the team second in the table at the start of play.

It was soon 2-0 when Luis Binks headed home Harvey White's corner and we could have been out of sight by the time Derby pulled a goal back via Jordan Brown in the final seconds of added time in the first half.

That was a telling blow, as momentum turned in the second half. Derby slowly got on top, equalised through Morgan Whittaker on 73 minutes and pushed on for victory, creating chances in the final minutes. But we held on and over the 90 minutes, deserved our point.

Derby County: Ravas, Minkley, McDonald (Ebosele 5), Brown, Bielek (Brown 18) Wassall, Whittaker, Babos, Hector-Ingram, Sibley, Cresswell (Shonibare 60). Substitutes (not used): Barnes, Thompson.

Spurs: Austin, Eyoma (c), Lyons-Foster, Hinds, Fagan-Walcott, Binks, Tracey, White, Richards (R Clarke 83), Thorpe (Patterson 74), Markanday (Dinzeyi 87). Substitutes (not used): De Bie, Statham.

WAYNE WANTS GREATER MATURITY

Under-23s Coach Wayne Burnett bemoaned the timing of Derby's first goal just before half-time as his side let slip a 2-0 lead to draw 2-2 with the Rams last week.

"I thought we played reasonably well in the first half and with the chances we created, I don't think anyone would have argued if we'd have been three or four up at half-time," he said. "Instead, we gave a goal away, a crucial one because the timing gave them a lift and then it's a different game.

"We didn't really continue to play in the second half and that's disappointing. The players are disappointed that we haven't come away with the three points. It's a difficult place to come and people will say 'it's a good result' but on our first half performance, we should really have the three points. We haven't, and we were probably hanging on for a draw. Players have to learn, they have to understand and in a football sense, we have to mature a little quicker as individuals and a group."

Paris Maghoma

FAREWELL PARIS

Last week we announced that Paris Maghoma has joined Championship outfit Brentford.

The midfielder came through our Academy and featured 11 times for the Under-23s this season, with an additional four appearances in the Under-19 UEFA Youth League.

He has linked up with Neil MacFarlane's Brentford 'B' team, which also includes our former Academy left-back Nick Tsaroulla. We wish Paris all the best for the future.

MINUTES FOR LOAN PLAYERS

A handful of our Development Squad players are continuing to start regularly for their loan clubs in the Football League.

In the Championship, central midfielder Luke Amos has started the last eight games in a row for Queens Park Rangers including a 1-0 home win over Leeds United on Saturday. Former Elland Road winger Jack Clarke came off the bench to make his debut for Rangers during that match, having joined them on loan from us last week.

Luke's fellow central midfielder George Marsh also clocked up his eighth consecutive league start for Leyton Orient in League Two at the weekend, his side slipping to a narrow 1-0 defeat away to Port Vale.

In the same division, midfielder Jack Roles went on as a half-time substitute for Cambridge United in their home clash with Stevenage on Saturday, but couldn't prevent his side from suffering a 4-0 defeat. Jack has only been absent from one of his side's last 11 domestic games.

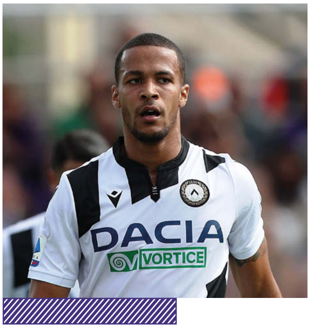
Profiling former Academy players who made the grade as a pro after leaving our youth set-up…

WILLIAM-TROOST EKONG

Defender William Troost-Ekong joined our Academy as a first year scholar in the summer of 2010, making his debut for our Under-18s against West Brom that August.

The following season, 2011/12, he became a regular for the youth team and also played in the NextGen Series against FC Basel and Liverpool in a side which also featured Harry Kane, but with chances limited for the centre-half, he was released at the end of the 2012/13 campaign and signed for FC Groningen in the Netherlands.



His senior debut came against RKC Waalwijk on 21 September, 2013, while he joined Dordrecht on loan before signing for Gent in Belgium in July 2015. Another loan followed, with Norwegian side Haugesund, then he signed for Bursaspor in Turkey and spent 2017/18 there before moving to Serie A side Udinese in August 2018. He has featured 53 times for the Italian outfit to date.

Although born in Haarlem, Netherlands, and representing Holland at youth level, he was also eligible for Nigeria and made his senior debut for them in June, 2015. He was selected for their 2018 World Cup squad, playing 90 minutes in all three group games and has captained Nigeria in their last four international matches.

NEW CONTRACTS FOR DUO

Kit Graham and Hannah Godfrey have both signed new contracts with the Club until 2021.

Forward Kit arrived from Charlton Athletic last summer and has made 16 appearances for us in all competitions, scoring four times including both goals in our 2-1 away win to Bristol City in October.

The tricky attacker has started every game in the Barclays FA Women's Super League this season and was nominated for the PFA Bristol Street Motors Player of the Month award in October.

Defender Hannah joined us in July, 2019, having spent the previous four years in the United States representing the University of South Alabama and Pensacola FC.

Hannah has become a regular starter for Spurs Women since arriving in the summer and has made 12 appearances in all competitions so far this season.

She earned her first international call-up for Scotland in November and scored on her debut in a 5-0 victory in Albania in Euro qualifying.

DEAN HAUNTS HAMMERS AGAIN WITH LAST-GASP WINNER

A dramatic late winner from Rianna Dean handed Spurs Women a first win of 2020 with a 2-1 victory over West Ham at the Hive on Sunday 12 January.

Full debutant Emma Mitchell's brilliant left-footed strike gave us the lead on the half-hour mark which we held until the 90th minute when Kenza Dali's low shot found its way into the net.

However, substitute Angela Addison's delightful cross was met by Dean who powered a bullet header into the net to secure a dramatic win in the 96th minute with her third goal in as many games against the Hammers this season.

We started the brighter of the two teams and almost capitalised on a goalkeeping error from Courtney Brosnan inside the opening 10 minutes when Kit Graham charged down a loose ball and laid it off to Rosella Ayane, but she sadly couldn't get her effort on target. Ayane went close again when she powered down the left-hand side and unleashed a shot that looked destined for the bottom corner, but Brosnan pulled off a smart stop and tipped it around the post for a corner.

We weren't to be denied from the resulting corner, though. Despite West Ham initially dealing with the set-piece, the ball dropped to Mitchell on the edge of the box and she superbly curled a shot through a sea of bodies and into the back of the net to give us the lead in the 30th minute.

The visitors managed to pinch an equaliser in the 90th minute when Dali struck a low shot into the corner past substitute goalkeeper Chloe Morgan. There was to be one last dramatic twist, though.

Nine minutes of stoppage time were added on and it was our players who pushed for the winner. They found it as well when Addison, who'd only been on the pitch for a couple of minutes, dinked an excellent cross into the box that Dean headed home in the sixth minute of the additional time to send the crowd wild and secure a huge three points.

Spurs: Spencer (Morgan 46), Percival, Green (c), Filbey, Davison, Dean, Graham (Quinn 72), Mitchell, Ayane (Addison 86), Godfrey, Neville. Substitutes (not used): Leon, Peplow, Schillaci, Worm.

West Ham: Brosnan, Redisch Kvamme, Fisk, Flaherty (c), Vetterlein, Middag, Longhurst (Simic 59), Dali, Leon (Galabadaarachchi 59), Thomas, Lehmann (Kiernan 71). Substitutes (not used): Moorhouse, Wallen, Littlejohn, Kiszkis.

MITCHELL HOPING TO BUILD ON POSITIVE START

New recruit Emma Mitchell made a promising start to her loan spell at Spurs Women after getting off the mark during her full debut in our home win against West Ham.

There was plenty to smile about following our thrilling London derby victory as we made it two league wins out of two against the Hammers and moved up to fifth in the Barclays FA Women's Super League (WSL) with our first three points of the year.

And fans at The Hive got to see our new signing mark her first start for the Club with a cracking goal in the first half to give us the lead against Matt Beard's side.

Following her first 90 minutes in Spurs colours, the 27-year-old said: "I think there's always that apprehension when you come in to a new team, but it's been a positive start for me and I just need to build on that and my confidence.

"It was a really good feeling to score my first goal on my full debut. We spoke in the week about set pieces and how we could exploit West Ham and we saw that Siri (Worm) scored a great goal against Reading before Christmas, so I thought I'd try my luck and I was happy to see it go in the bottom corner. I've been really working hard on my fitness and that's allowed me to get higher up the field and if I'm able to get into the box on a regular basis and create chances for the team then I'll be happy with that."

The Scottish international, who joined us on loan from Arsenal at the beginning of the month, enjoyed playing in what was our first-ever London derby at The Hive and it proved to be another blockbuster against the Hammers with dramatic injury-time scenes after Rianna Dean scored the winning goal in the 96th minute.

"You could see from the reaction of the girls how much the win meant, it was a massive three points for the Club," Emma continued. "After doing our analysis after the game, we know we should have scored some more goals and we could have been in control a lot more but it's another derby, we knew what to expect from West Ham.

"They're always going to be physical and put a challenge in and I thought we handled that really well. We knew we had it in us to go and win and it always makes it a little more special in a derby when you win it right at the end."

DEVELOPING THE NEXT GENERATION OF GLOBAL COACHES

The Club is in partnership with three colleges located in London, Hertfordshire and Essex. Together, the Club and the colleges deliver Football Development Programmes combined with a range of high-quality sports study programmes for students aged between 16 and 19.

One of the key highlights of the partnerships is the Coaching Excellence Centre, designed to organically create and develop the next generation of Tottenham Hotspur coaches. The programme identifies students who demonstrate a talent and desire to begin a career in football coaching, creating a pathway for the students to progress into professional coaching.

Our Global Football Development team works to help the students reach their full potential by exposing them to the Club's coaching philosophy and unique DNA. The college programmes have now seen over 20 coaches progress from being ambitious students to working across our selected levels of Player Development Programmes, from grassroots to elite.

Alongside the Coaching Excellence Centre, the partnerships offer Player Development Programmes that incorporate the authentic coaching methods developed and used within the Club's Academy. These programmes give students the opportunity to play in league and cup competitions, gain extra qualifications and to be selected to work as a ball assistant at a Tottenham Hotspur home fixture. The students will also receive benefits such as daily technical sessions, allocated use of the Club's state-of-the-art Training Centre, and more.

The vision of the partnerships is to motivate and inspire students to progress into further education by combining a passion for football with their education. Three of our successful students that have progressed through the Coaching Excellence Centre Programme can be seen in the images above supporting our Premier Day Training Programme at our Hotspur Way training ground.

SERGE JOINS FUTSAL SESSION FOR YOUNGSTERS WITH DISABILITIES

A group of students with learning disabilities were joined by a special guest last Thursday when Serge Aurier visited their school to take part in a futsal session.

The session at Riverside School, a special educational needs (SEN) school on White Hart Lane, was part of a new futsal club delivered by the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation.

The programme uses the indoor five-a-side variant of football to help students improve their technique and control, while building confidence and social skills.

During the session, students were given the opportunity to ask Serge questions about his football career and what it's like playing for Spurs.

He was then put through his paces alongside the teenagers in a series of futsal drills, learning skills specific to the small-sided game.

The Foundation works with several SEN schools within the Club's local community, designing bespoke PE programmes to meet the needs of students with a range of disabilities. These include adapted activities such as NFL-inspired flag games, sports leadership courses and futsal.

By giving young people with disabilities access to one-to-one coaching and support at school, the Club aims to help integrate participants into mainstream activities it delivers within the wider community, including Kicks and other free football programmes.

Speaking at the event, Serge said: "It was great to meet the kids and play some futsal with them.

"Taking time out of the day to go and meet local young people is one of the best things we can do as players to give back to the community. Hopefully it was a special experience for them."

Spurs fan Harry, a Riverside pupil, said: "It was amazing to have Serge come and visit us at our futsal club – it has made everyone's day!"

Dan Slaughter, Senior Coordinator at the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation said: "Inclusion is at the heart of everything we do as a Club.

"Through programmes like these, we are creating a positive environment for young people with disabilities to take part in sport, develop their self-esteem and have fun."

POWERED BY

AT THE BACK POST

What does the name Norwich City stir in the memory of club historian John Fennelly? We find out.

BERT GOSNELL

Winger Bert Gosnell established his footballing reputation with Newcastle United where he helped the club win three First Division titles and twice finish runners-up in the FA Cup.

That all happened between 1904-09 with Colchester-born Bert also winning an England cap against Ireland in Belfast in 1906 when Spurs man Charlie O'Hagan was in the home side alongside ex Tottenham team mate Jack Kirwan.

Gosnell moved to White Hart Lane in July 1910 but he only managed seven league and cup outings during his single year with for us and later played for Darlington and Port Vale.

Coincidentally he replaced O'Hagan as Norwich manager in 1921 and stayed at The Nest for five years. He later coached Colchester Town.

MARTIN CHIVERS

Martin Chivers scored four goals against Norwich in season 1972/73 when the Canaries survived relegation by just two points and also lost to Spurs in the League Cup Final.

Our England international, who would join City in 1978, grabbed both our goals in a 2-1 win at Carrow Road in the October. And he then bagged another brace – one from the penalty spot – in the return at the Lane in March when Jimmy Pearce also scored in our 3-0 triumph.

The Canaries rallied well enough to hold on to their top flight status, having reached Division One for the first time in their history the previous season. But they would go down at the end of the following campaign when they finished bottom of the pile, the first season that saw three sides relegated.

Chivers, whose two goals won us our first League Cup in 1971, was again to the fore against Norwich at Wembley in 1973, where substitute Ralph Coates hit the winner.

JOHN POLSTON

Norwich and Peterborough

When John Polston and his younger brother Andy played in the same Spurs team in March 1990 they became the first siblings to do so since Bobby and Danny Steel in April 1912.

That would be Andy's only league appearance for us but fellow defender John had made his debut in late 1986 and would go on to appear in 28 league and cup games.

He did even better at Norwich when he moved there in July 1990, establishing a regular place in central defence where he linked up with fellow Spurs youth team graduates Mark Bowen, Ian Crook and Ian Culverhouse.

Sam Bell had the misfortune to join Spurs towards the end of the 1934/35 season as we tumbled out of the First Division after just two seasons in the top flight.

Although he hailed from County Durham, he made the breakthrough with Norwich where he started in April 1930. City were in Division Three (South) at the time as were Luton where he moved to four years later. So, it was quite a step up for him when he was signed by Spurs boss Percy Smith having scored 20 goals in his only season at Kenilworth Road.

However, when Smith was replaced by Jack Tresadern, Bell was out of favour and moved on to Southend.

ROY HOLLIS

Roy Hollis certainly enjoyed a goalscoring debut. He hit a hat-trick in less than 30 minutes on his first start for Norwich and then did it again against the Canaries when he returned to Carrow Road as a Southend player in 1954!

The Yarmouth-born centre-forward joined us from City in 1952 and bagged a brace on his Spurs debut at home to Tranmere in the FA Cup. Roy's record with Norwich was a goal every 1.81 games.

JOHN SUTTON

John Sutton certainly possesses a good footballing pedigree. He is the son of Mike and brother of Chris who both played for Norwich City among other clubs.

Born in Norwich, the striker joined us as a trainee in 2000 and, although he scored regularly at reserve level, his only Spurs first team outing came as a substitute in a friendly at Gillingham in February 2002.

His journey through the game has included a succession of Scottish clubs including Greenock Morton where he is currently player-coach.

MAURICE NORMAN

Maurice Norman retains legendary status at this club for his defensive exploits from mid 50s to mid 60s during which he was pivotal in Spurs achieving the 'Double', retaining the FA Cup and becoming the first British club to win a European trophy.

Born south of Norwich in the village of Mulbarton, he developed his powerful physical physique while working on a local farm as a youngster and again during the summer break after turning professional with the Canaries in 1952.

He joined us in November 1955 with winger Johnny Gavin moving back to Carrow Road as part of the deal and, after initially playing in both full-back positions, became one of the best central defenders this country has seen. He was confident, strong, combative, always aware and with good passing skills. Not surprisingly, he was also a regular England international.

IAN WALKER

Goalkeeper Ian Walker made his Spurs debut at Carrow Road in March 1991 with an interested party looking on from the home bench – his father Mike, then a City coach who would take over as Norwich manager the following year.

John Hendry and Peter Garland also made their debuts in that game with the former scoring in our 2-1 defeat.

Future England 'keeper Ian helped us win the 1991 League Cup and subsequently played for that day's Wembley opponents Leicester.

OBITUARIES

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

Martin Donovan, who passed away on 7 January. He worked as a steward at the club between 1983 and 2003 and then became a season ticket holder until 2007. He will be sadly missed by his family and friends.

John Houston, who passed away at the age of 87 on 16 December last year. Born in Park Lane, he was naturally a lifelong fan of the club with a long family association to Spurs. His dad, William, played for and coached our nursery side Northfleet in the 1940s, his granddad Robert played for us in the 1902/03 season, while his other granddad was John Over, our first-ever groundsman.

David John Pegg, who died at the age of 65 on 27 November. A lifelong fan and season ticket holder, he was also a close friend to fellow Spurs fans Chas and Dave and their families, and was much-loved by all who knew him. He will be greatly missed.

Jenny O'Neill, who sadly passed suddenly on 18 November, at the age of 54. An avid supporter of the club, she will be deeply missed by sister Lesley and all her family and friends.

Lifelong supporter Kenneth Wittig, who passed away at the age of 80 on 14 December and will be sadly missed by all who knew him.

We would like to extend our condolences to their families and friends at this sad time.

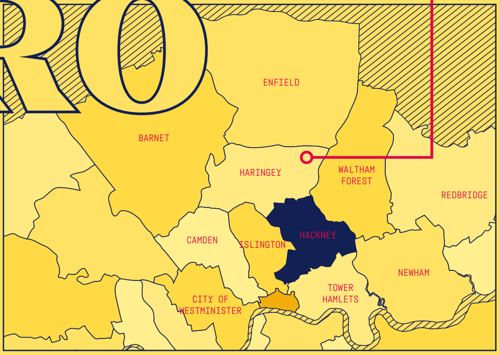
LOCAL HERO

PLAYER NAME:
BERT RINGROSE
D.O.B: 18.11.16
POSITION: FULL-BACK
LEAGUE APPEARANCES: 10
BORN IN: TOTTENHAM



Looking back on players spotted by Spurs playing locally in schools' football – and who went on to appear in our first team. John Fennelly details the career of Bert Ringrose.

Defender Bert Ringrose made his Spurs debut against today's opponents Norwich City at Carrow Road in January 1937. We won the Division Two game 3-2 thanks to a Johnny Morrison hat-trick with Jack Vinall scoring twice for the home side.

The Canaries had done the same to us in the September – winning 3-2 at White Hart Lane. Vinall was again on target with Jack O'Reilly the double goal man this time.

Our goalscorers were George Hunt and future England cricketer Bill Edrich who had played for Norwich as an amateur. He also represented Norfolk in county football and later in his career in minor counties cricket. He had joined us in 1934, turning professional the following year.

But it wasn't a great season for either club with Spurs finishing 10th and Norwich 17th. Leicester City and Blackpool went up at the end of the campaign, replacing relegated Manchester United and Sheffield Wednesday. We wouldn't escape back to the top flight until 1950 while Norwich went down to the third tier on the eve of World War Two in 1939.

Ringrose had been born in Tottenham in November 1916 and had excelled in local schools football. He played for our Junior side before being signed as an amateur in 1934 when he was sent to our nursery club, Northfleet United, to continue his footballing education in more mature and testing games during a highly-successful time at Stonebridge Road.

Bert did well enough with the Kent side to be brought back to White Hart Lane where he signed as a full professional in May 1936. But he was unfortunate to be at Tottenham at a time when manager Jack Tresadern had a surplus of options at full-back.

Indeed, he only made it to our team for that Norwich debut because Ralph Ward was injured. Ward was an extremely physically powerful defender whose remarkable consistency always ensured that he was first choice, having only arrived the previous season after he had impressed playing against us for Bradford Park Avenue in the FA Cup.

He was nicknamed 'Butcher' and many thought it was because of the rugged approach of a man who had also boxed to a good level. But I was once told that he was called 'Butcher' simply because that had been his previous occupation.

Ward's form meant that Ringrose, although also highly-rated, was very much a squad player and he made all of his 10 senior appearances in the second half of that season during Ward's enforced absence.

Bert must have had high hopes when Peter McWilliam took over as manager at the start of the 1938-39 season. But McWilliam's first foray into the transfer market saw him sign England full-back Bert Sproston from Leeds United who replaced Ward in the side for the opening games of the new campaign.

But Sproston found it difficult to settle in London and, although he was picked to play for us at Manchester City in the November, he actually appeared for the home side against Spurs having transferred to Maine Road the day before! He had been with us just five months but at least we recovered the £9,500 fee from City that we had paid Leeds for his services.

So, if McWilliam had doubts about Ward's ongoing contribution to the side, was this a real chance for Ringrose? Sadly for him it was not to be. Ralph was recalled to the first team and went on to play in every game, including throughout the Second World War years when he was made captain of the side.

Indeed, the unfortunate Ringrose was placed on the the transfer list. He quickly made the switch to Notts County, then in Division Three (South) in May 1939. Sadly, he broke his leg so badly in his first game for his new club that it ended his career at the age of 23.

AWAY MATCH

Robert Pilch came from a cricketing family and played at a minor counties level for Norfolk. And, although he was clearly also a talented footballer, he was always happier playing at a local level.

Born in Holt in 1877, he was a highly capable half-back and played for the Church of England Young Men's Society, a club that still exists and played a role in the formation of Norwich City.

Pilch signed as an amateur with us in November 1903 in our Southern League days and made his Spurs debut at Brentford in the London League soon afterwards. However, after just one more game in that division and another in the Western League the following season, he returned home and continued to play for Norwich CEYMS.

He stayed with them for more than 25 years, playing in every position and later serving as secretary, chairman and president. In 1911/12 he played twice for the Canaries in the Southern League and for Everton against Norwich when the Toffees turned up a man short for a charity game. Robert was due to referee the match but instead stood in for England winger Jack Sharp. Pilch was later a director and vice-chairman at Norwich.

HOME COMFORTS ALREADY FOR GEDSON

BILLY SHAW SPOKE WITH OUR NEW LOAN SIGNING GEDSON FERNANDES AND DISCOVERED A LONDON LINK THAT WILL NO DOUBT HELP THE PORTUGUESE MIDFIELDER IN HIS NEW ADVENTURE

Gedson Fernandes already feels right at home in north London – in more ways than one. Not only is our new loan signing from Benfica in love with our new stadium, but he's coming to a city where – despite his Portuguese background – his family actually already resides.

Speaking on his arrival at the Club, the 21-year-old midfielder shared his excitement at the chance to play for us and told the story of how, even though he's spent his entire career in Portugal to date, earned two senior international caps for his country and even won a Primeira Liga title during his time at Benfica, his parents, sisters and their extended family came to live in London before him.

"I'm very happy to be here today – I make my dream a reality," he said. "For me, it's one big dream to come to this big Club. I will try to give my best for the Club every day, in every training session and in every game and I will try to help the team wherever I can, working hard every day for this shirt. I have no words to say about the stadium. I've never seen anything like this – it's unbelievable!

"The training ground is fantastic too, the people that I've met are fantastic. I know the squad because I've watched some games, I have some references like Moussa Sissoko, I know a little bit about Eric Dier because he played in Portugal and I know the coach (Jose Mourinho) because he's a big coach.

"Also, I know about the staff (Assistant Head Coach Joao Sacramento and Goalkeeper Coach Nuno Santos) a little bit as well because one of my friends last year played at (their former club) Lille, so he spoke with me a little bit about them.

"This is a fantastic challenge that I have accepted and I have to win my challenge. I want to make good things happen – let's see!"

Usually when a player joins us from overseas, his family follows later to join him. But in the curious case of Gedson, it's the other way around – his nearest and dearest already live here and he's now being reunited with them!

Speaking English to a good standard, the midfielder explained: "It's a hard story. My family came to London because in Portugal, work is very hard and it's difficult to find work. They did not have a brilliant life but they have a good life here and this is one more motivation for me to be here today. Yes, they will help me to settle here."

On the pitch, Gedson is looking forward to honing his skills under his fellow countryman Jose and is eager to test himself on the Premier League stage: "I have to focus on my job and try to do my best," he added. "All young players want to work with Jose Mourinho because he's one of the best – all of us as players want to stay near the best, so it's fantastic to work with him.

"The Premier League is a different competition – every player in the world wants to play in the Premier League. For me, it's one more motivation because I always dreamed of playing in this league and now let's make my dream come true. I think we're going to do fantastic things because this is a fantastic Club."

Ahead of UEFA Euro 2020, Andy Greeves offers the lowdown on various nations that will be appearing at the European Championships as it celebrates its 60th anniversary. Today he takes a look at Vladimir Petkovic's Switzerland.

FORM GUIDE

Switzerland sealed their place at UEFA Euro 2020 with a 6-1 away win in Gibraltar in their final Group D qualifying fixture in November. Vladimir Petkovic's team won five, drew two and lost just one of their eight qualifying matches to finish top of a group which also contained Denmark, the Republic of Ireland and Georgia.

Switzerland have arranged a series of friendly matches prior to their UEFA Euro 2020 opener against Wales in Baku on 13 June, which includes home clashes with Germany on 31 May and Liechtenstein on 4 June.

KEY PLAYER

Benfica forward Haris Seferovic made his senior debut for Switzerland against Greece on 6 February, 2013 and has scored 18 goals in 64 appearances for his country. His most recent strike came in a 2-0 win over the Republic of Ireland in Geneva on October. The Sursee-born player, who will celebrate his 28th birthday on 22 February, has plied his trade in five different European leagues to date, including Italy, Spain, Germany, Portugal and his native Switzerland.

SPURS CONNECTION

Ramon Vega joined us from Italian side Cagliari in January 1997, just over six months on from starting all three of Switzerland's Group A matches at Euro 1996. The defender made his Spurs debut in our 2-1 home defeat to Manchester United on 12 January 1997 – the first of his 84 appearances for us through until 2000, during which time he scored eight goals. Vega, who was a League Cup winner with us in 1999, also played for the likes of Grasshopper, Celtic (loan), Watford and Creteil during his career. He won 23 caps for Switzerland between 1993 and 2001, scoring once.

Zurich-born Christian Gross was appointed as our manager in November 1997. He won 10 of his 30 matches in charge, drew eight and lost 12 prior to his departure from N17 in September 1998.

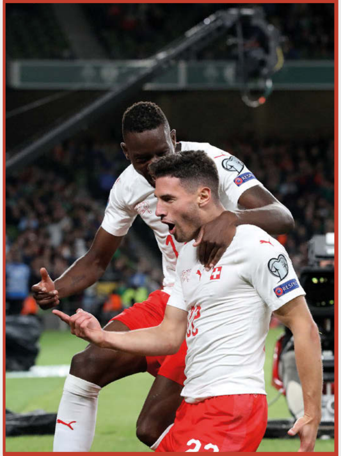
Left-sided player Reto Ziegler joined us from Grasshopper in August 2004, with his competitive debut coming in our 1-0 Premier League victory at Everton on 2 October that year. The Geneva-born player, who signed for MLS side FC Dallas in 2018, scored once in 35 appearances for us between 2004 and 2006. He netted once in 35 matches for the Swiss national team between 2005 and 2014.

Our first encounter with a Swiss team in European competition came on 19 September, 1973 as we won 5-1 at Grasshopper in a UEFA Cup first round, first leg tie. We completed a 9-2 aggregate victory with a 4-1 triumph over the Zurich-based side at White Hart Lane.

After 30 minutes of our UEFA Champions League play-off first leg against Berne-based club Young Boys on 17 August, 2010, we trailed 3-0. Goals either side of half-time from Sebastien Bassong and Roman Pavlyuchenko reduced the deficit on the night and we completed a 6-3 aggregate victory as a hat-trick from Peter Crouch and a further strike from Jermain Defoe gave us a 4-0 triumph in the second leg at the Lane the following week.

Our most recent encounter with a Swiss club saw us beaten 4-1 on penalties in a UEFA Europa League quarter-final clash with Basel on 11 April, 2013. The first leg in N17 finished 2-2, as did the return match at St Jakob Park after extra-time, prior to Basel triumphing on spot-kicks.

EURO HISTORY



Switzerland have competed in four previous European Championship finals – the first of which was Euro 1996. The Swiss were winless and finished bottom of their group at that tournament, as they did at Euro 2004.

Switzerland achieved their first victory at a European Championship finals at Euro 2008, beating Portugal 2-0 in Basel. Alas, they finished bottom of their group once again at a tournament they jointly hosted with neighbours Austria. They progressed to knockout phase of the competition for the first time at Euro 2016 as a victory over Albania and draws with Romania and France saw them finish second in Group A. They were beaten 5-4 on penalties by Poland after their round of 16 match in Saint-Etienne finished in a 1-1 draw.

SPURS RESPECTS

We are justly proud of our superb and loyal support, home and away. We all have a responsibility to act as ambassadors of Tottenham Hotspur Football Club. And act as considerate neighbours to those who live and work in the area around the stadium.
If you witness any form of anti-social abusive or discriminatory behaviour, homophobic language, crime, vandalism, violence, the use of smoke bombs or pyrotechnics close to you at any of our matches, please send a text to 07537 404821 along with your location (block/row/seat) and the location of the offence (block/row/seat).
Text 07537 404821 with – FOUL (language and behaviour); RACISM (racist chanting & shouting); HPH (homophobic chanting); DRINK (drinking alcohol in view of the pitch); SMOKE (smoking in the stadium); STAND (standing up); PYRO (use of or intended use of any pyrotechnics or smoke bomb).

SMOKING

There is no smoking or use of e-cigarettes permitted anywhere across the stadium campus.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION

In the unlikely event that we should have to evacuate the stadium, please adhere to the advice given by front line staff and on our public address system.

Continuing our Q&A feature for this season – using the year of the Club's formation as inspiration – as we ask our players to choose 18 lifestyle questions from a selection of 82. This evening, Ryan Sessegnon is in the hotseat.

1 You have a rare day off from football – what is your perfect day?

Ryan: "I would go to a spa. I would have a full-body massage with a facial as well. Get in the pool, the jacuzzi. A relaxing day."

2 How do you like your eggs?

Ryan: "I like my eggs poached on buttered brown toast with beans."

3. Are you good at another sport?

Ryan: "Table tennis is my other strong sport, or badminton and even volleyball. I've played table tennis once or twice against a few of the other players and a bit of snooker as well. At table tennis I managed to beat Serge Aurier, Moussa Sissoko and Victor Wanyama."

4. When was the last time you wore a tie?

Ryan: "Probably the season I won Championship Player of the Year, back in April, 2018."

5. Which emoji do you use the most?

Ryan: "The laughing face, definitely."

6. What is your guilty pleasure?

Ryan: "Snacking, probably. I snack on a lot of popcorn. It's a favourite in the team to be honest and it's the exact same popcorn that we all like – a mixed selection of it."

7. Who would you most like to meet?

Ryan: "Kevin Hart. I think if I was just sitting in the room with him, he'd make laugh. He's a really funny guy."

8. What inspires you every day?

Ryan: "Family, definitely. You always have to remember where you started and where you came from."

9. If you could change one thing about yourself, what would it be?

Ryan: "I would probably say my shoe size; it's a weird one. I would like my feet to be a bit smaller. I just think smaller feet for trainers looks better."

10. When was the last time you cried?

Ryan: "I can't remember you know. I do remember crying after the play-off final and getting promoted to the Premier League with Fulham, but I don't know if that was quite the last time."

11. Who has been the biggest influence on your career so far?

Ryan: "I think I have two. My brother Chris is one as he has always kept pushing and pushing me and the other would be Slaviša Jokanović, my first manager at Fulham, because he gave me the opportunity to play at a young age and he was a big part of my development."

12. What is one question that you are always asked in interviews?

Ryan: "It's 'How does it feel to be compared to Gareth Bale?' I get asked that question all the time. Each interview just seems to mention comparisons between me and Gareth Bale for some reason. Of course, he is a player that I have looked up to and it's flattering to be compared to someone like him but at the same time, you want to be your own person."

13. You are going to a fancy-dress party – what is your costume?

Ryan: "I am only going to say this because I have done it before – me and my brother went to one as Mario and Luigi. I'd go as Mario."

14. Who is the biggest joker in the team?

Ryan: "Serge Aurier."

15. What position did you play in your first game?

Ryan: "In youth football, I started as a striker and then professionally, in my first game I played at left-back. A lot of full backs always seem to have started further forward in their careers and then move towards defence – I don't know why that is."

16. Which superhero do you wish actually existed?

Ryan: "Spiderman."

17. What is the best advice you have ever been given?

Ryan: "'Work as if this is your last day in football.' That has always stuck with me from my days in the academy at Fulham."

18. Have you ever had a job outside football?

Ryan: "Yes, not many people know about this but when I was very young there was a golf course near to where I grew up. Me, my brother and my friends used to work at the driving range. We used to collect the balls in a basket and bring them back to the machines for people to use again on the range. It was just a small weekend job."
